

Recommended Areas for INDS Professional Electives

Courses from the following Auburn University minors and/or certificate programs are approved for Interior Design professional elective credit.

Business Minor

Communication Minor

Foreign Language Minor

Health Equity Science – Undergraduate Certificate

Human Development and Family Studies Minor

Hunger Studies Minor

International Minor in Human Sciences

- Joseph S. Bruno Auburn Abroad in Italy
- Study Abroad Opportunities

Philanthropy and Nonprofit Studies Minor

Psychology Minor

Studio Art Minor

Sustainability Studies Minor

College of Human Sciences Study/Travel Programs can be used for professional elective credit. These courses vary from year to year. Ask your advisor for more information.

- Consumer and Design Sciences Study/Travel
- International Quality of Life Awards and New York Study Tour
- NeoCon/Chicago Study Tour

A brief list of alternative courses that have been approved for INDS professional electives is provided below. Some courses may have prerequisites associated with them. Refer to auburn.edu/bulletin for more information on each course including credit hours, prerequisites, and description.

ARCH 1000 - Careers in Design and Construction ARCH 2600 – The Art of Architecture, Place, and Culture CADS 2700/2703/2707 – Introduction to Nonprofit Organizations CADS 3700/3703/3707 – Gender, Wealth & Philanthropy CADS 4900 - Undergraduate Teaching Experience CADS 5310 – LEED Accreditation and Sustainability COMM 2410 – Small Group Communication COMP 1000 – Personal Computer Applications COUN 3000 - Career Success ENVD 2040 - Design, Invention, and Society FINC 2400 – Personal Finance	GSHS 2000 Global Studies in Human Sciences HOSP 4600 Beverage Appreciation (summer only) HUSC 1010 – Introduction to Human Sciences HUSC 2000 - Hunger: Causes, Consequences, and Responses HUSC 5930 – Society and Health HUSC 5940 – Study and Travel in Human Sciences HUSC 5950 – Health Equity Seminar POLI 3340 – Introduction to Conflict Resolution PRCM 2400 - Foundations of Public Relations PSYC 2010 – Introduction to Psychology PSYC 3590 - Psychology in the Workplace SUST 2000 – Introduction to Sustainability WMST 2100 – Introduction to Women’s Studies
--	---

(Please contact Kelly Martin at roperkl@auburn.edu to request approval for a specific course not listed in the above minor listings or course list).